

STILL WORKING FULL BLAST; CAPTURED IN PETERSBURG

Federal Agents Lead Raid in Negro Section—Citizens' Ticket Unopposed.

PETERSBURG, Jan. 21.—Still cabin of preaching fifty gallons of whisky a day, more than fifty gallons of corn mush and a large quantity of corn were seized in Pocahontas, a northern section of the city. Late this afternoon and Andrew Brown, colored, and his son, Angus Brown, were arrested and held for the Federal authorities charged with making whisky.

The field was carried out by local and national police and tax day detectives, and the first to be made in this vicinity in several months.

A large copper tank, coiled wire and other paraphernalia to make wire and stills were also seized at the negro's house, as were a number of articles alleged to have been stolen from Camp Lee.

Citizens' Ticket Unopposed.

Fredrick A. D'Alton, prominent business man and member of the City Council, has announced his entry in the commissioner race on an independent ticket, today withdrew from the race leaving only five candidates of the citizens' ticket.

The field, Ernest B. Wilson, the candidate having announced his withdrawal yesterday. Personal business given by Mr. D'Alton as the reason for quitting the race.

Dismissal Murder Charge.

A charge of murdering Marie Jackson, son of the judge of August 12, was not pressed against Timon Dixie, colored, the Hustings Court ruled. The negro was held on account of witnesses failing to appear, and when they again failed to appear today, the charge was dismissed. He had been condemned to death since the man died of blood poisoning from wounds alleged to have been inflicted by Dixie.

Petersburg News Notes.

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night re-elected William M. Martin, secretary, and F. N. Guernsey, assistant secretary, and F. N. Ellis, agricultural agent, were also re-elected.

On the charge of snatching a purse from a white woman at Christmas Eve, James Eppes, a negro youth, was today convicted by a jury in Hustings Court and sentenced to four years in the State Penitentiary.

William Smith, a white man, was fined $25 by Police Justice Clements this morning for resisting arrest while drunk.

FLU SPREADS IN CHICAGO

New Cases Number 2,225, With Fifty One More Death; Pneumonia Death List Large.

(By Universal Service)

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The influenza epidemic in Chicago today spread more rapidly than ever before. Between 1 A. M. Tuesday and 5 P. M. tonight 2,655 cases were reported.

Fifty-one persons died during this period, 11 of them cases reported today, twenty-one no cases being reported, but the death list—seventy-four—was larger by sixteen than yesterday's report.

The situation is still under control, and the cases continue to remain mild," said Health Commissioner Robert W. Redfield.

Influenza cases at Great Lakes naval training station decreased one-half for the twenty-four-hour period ending at noon today, as compared with the number reported for the previous twenty-four hours.

Sixty additional cases were reported at the station at noon today, against 118 at noon yesterday. In all, for the twenty-four-hour period numbered four, bringing the total fatalities since the outbreak of the epidemic to eleven.

There are now 924 influenza and pneumonia cases under treatment at the station.

Bankers to Oppose Rule.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Jan. 21.—Viewing "with grave concern" contemplated action on the part of the sixth Federal reserve bank to institute partial suspension and abolition of exchange collection by the banks in its district, and holding the "settled contention that it is the duty of all banks to defend the interests of themselves against the threatened invasion of vital interests and vested rights" over 150 members of the Alabama Bankers Association met here this afternoon, authorized committee of twenty-two members to devise ways and means of inexplicably resisting the Federal reserve bank in this action, and if necessary to institute injunction proceedings.
